

YOUR MISSIONARIES TO THE NAVAJO NATION

October-December 2017

Dear Pastor, Church and praying friends:

“Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: (Philippians 1:6) Greetings from the Navajo Indian Reservation; I pray that this letter finds you doing well in your service to our Lord and Savior. We trust that you had a wonderful Christmas as we did.

The ministry has been busy these last few months as we have seen families in the church struggle. What a blessing it is to see our families trust God in these times and continue serving the Lord. A few weeks ago, the church surprised my family with an appreciation dinner after a Sunday service. They showered us with gifts and expressed their love and appreciation. We are patiently waiting for our church-site paperwork to go through its process. Another survey was completed which brings us closer to obtaining the property.

I was asked to officiate a funeral for a man that was not saved. This is difficult to do, but the gospel was given, and twelve souls were saved.

The Christmas Eve services were special as we taught the real meaning of Christmas. The services included food, gifts for the children and adults, many visitors and a special program by our Junior church kids. It is a blessing to see our Navajo people learning and growing spiritually.

Our family is all doing well, and God has blessed us with good health. All three girls are doing a fantastic job with their school work and my wife is doing a wonderful job with the Junior church ministry. All the kids get excited to see her at church and they enjoy her lovable spirit.

We would like to say thank you for allowing us to be your ambassadors on the Navajo Indian Reservation. We thank you for all the prayers, encouragement and investing in this ministry. We are gearing up for 2018 and we are looking forward to seeing what God will do using Old Paths Baptist Church. Thank you again and may God bless you richly.

In Christ,

Ryan Nez
